Reading: Qing Ming Jie (Tomb Sweeping Day)
读一读：清明节

清明节，又称扫墓节。它是一个中国传统的民俗节日。每年四月，全家大小到祖先坟上打扫，祭拜，请求祖先保佑全家平安。

中国人孝顺父母，尊敬老人。清明节是传承“家”的观念最实际，也是最有效的生活教育。

清明时节春暖花开，除了扫墓祭祖之外，它也是全家郊游踏青的好时节。很多放风筝的活动也在清明节前后举行。

Qing Ming Jie literally means "Clear Bright Festival", and is commonly known as the Tomb Sweeping Day in English. This is a traditional holiday to honor one's ancestors. Falling on early April, it is a time for people to visit their family members' grave sites. They pay respect to their ancestors by sweeping and cleaning the tombstone and leaving flowers or other offerings at the grave.

Chinese people share a long tradition of worshipping their ancestors' spirits. By doing so, it is commonly believed that the ancestors will look after the family and help bring good luck and peace in the coming year. Participating in the Tomb Sweeping rituals ensures that this family value will be passed on to the next generation and also reinforces family relationships.

Although Qing Ming Jie is considered a solemn holiday, it is not necessarily a sad occasion. Many families look forward to this festival as a special time for their family to enjoy a nice spring day together outdoors. Some even take pleasure in the ancient Chinese invention of flying kites during this time.

Answer the following questions.

1. What are the other names for Qing Ming Jie?

2. When is Qing Ming Jie?

3. Where do people go on Qing Ming Jie?

4. How do people show respect to their ancestors?

5. Is Qing Ming Jie a sad holiday for Chinese people?
If not, why?
